Boone County Election Board Meeting March 8th, 2022

Meeting is called to Order by Rebecca McClure at 11:10am

Clerk Fouts advises the CEB that all committees with late CFA-4 reports have turned in their report and paid the assessed fine except for two.

Erin Brewster, candidate for 2018 Council, turned in all late reports but failed to pay. Clerk Fouts asks the members of the CEB to move forward with litigation to collect the fine. Brian Jones makes a motion to file a small claim and McClure seconds. Motion carries 3-0

Lauren Hernandez has turned in her late 2021 annual report and failed to pay the fine. Fouts will send a notice and request she pay the fine or appear before the CEB on May 3rd.

Fouts gives the CEB the opportunity to review the ballots and informs them that neither Chairman requested non-contested candidate be placed on the ballot. The deadline has passed.

Fouts reminds the CEB of the deadline for absentee poll workers. That deadline is March 18th at noon.

Fouts reminds the CEB of the security grant that we received in 2021 and outlines the plan for those funds. Portable lighting, security cameras and on-site security will be planned for the Primary.

The public test of the voting equipment will be held on March 23rd at 9:00am in the Election Room.

McClure motions to adjourn.
